THE CHIEF SCOUT'S AWARD

The Chief Scout's Award can be awarded to any Scout who, in the judgment of their peers and Scouters, exemplifies the principles of Scouting through their leadership, voluntary community service and outdoor skills.

The Chief Scout's Award was inaugurated in September 1973 by his Excellency, Roland Michener C.C.C.M.M., C.D., Governor General, in his capacity of Chief Scout of Canada. He had been greatly impressed by the many projects through which Scouts rendered service to others and helped to improve the natural environment, and he felt that such acts should be specially recognized.

MEDAL OF THE MAPLE AWARD

The Medal of the Maple for Distinguished Youth Service is an award created by National Youth Network, designed to honour those youth who have significantly contributed to the Movement and the spirit of Scouting through community service, extraordinary Scouting participation and a solid system of personal values.

The Medal of the Maple Award was launched in Scouts Canada's Centennial year (Fall 2007), to symbolize the importance of youth involvement in our Movement's success.
